NO. 31

K. OF P. MEETING GRAND SUCCESS

The District Meeting Held in This City Tuesday Evening.

MEETING LARGELY ATTENDED

Noted Speakers Present—A Delicious Spread—All Present Enjoyed the Occasion.

One of the largest and most pleasant occasions that has ever occurred in this city was first meeting of the Fifth District meeting of the Knights of Pythias. This District comprises the counties of Alachua, Bradford and Levy, and is presided over by District Deputy Grand Chancellor W. E. Dow, of High Springs. A large number of delegates and visitors were present. Grand Chancellor G. S. Hallmark of Jacksonville, Past Grand Chancellor W. R. O'Neal of Orlando, and Past Chancellor Joe Sherrouse of Jacksonville were present and added greatly to the pleasure of the occasion.

Marcus Endel, in behalf of Mt. Vernon Lodge No. 20, of this city, delivered an address of welcome in his usual forcible style and eloquent language. After this address a team from Mt. Vernon Lodge conferred the third rank, amplified form, which was highly complimented by visitors.

At the conclusion of the work Chancellor Commander Phifer turned over the convention to District Deputy Grand Chancellor Dow, who in well chosen words assumed charge of the district convention. He first introduced Past Chancellor Joe Sherrouse, of Jacksonville, who is recognized as one of the brightest and best informed Knights of the State. Mr. Sherrouse then addressed the convention on "Methods of Doing Rank Work," which was both instructive and entertaining, and was greatly appreciated by all present.

Past Grand Chancellor O'Neal made an address on Pythianism and showed by the masterly way he handled the subject that his heart is in the work. Mr. O'Neal's address was an able one.

Grand Chancellor G. S. Hallmark was next on the program and handled his subject, "Our Order," in a way that made all present feel proud that they belonged to the grand order of Knights of Pythias.

The committee on refreshments—M. B. Saunders, W. B. Holder and W. R. Eddins—have the thanks of all present for the delicious spread which was served in the large hall of the Endel Block. The refreshments served on this occasion were the equal to any ever served in this city.

The committee on arrangements, who so completely and successfully accomplished their work, was composed of L. C. Lynch, A. M. Cushman, R. T. Schafer, J. F. Bunch and W. R. McKinstry. The reception committee was composed of J. A. Phifer, Geo. M. Lynch and Marcus Endel.

About 125 visitors and members of the home lodge were present on this memorable occasion and all will remember it as one of the most pleasant events ever attended.

Recovered His Horse.

Archer, Aug. 9.—Marion Smith has recovered his horse, which was stolen Friday night. The thief was arrested at Alachua, where he was trying to sell the horse. The same thief had stolen a horse from J. E. Brevard at Half Moon, and also a buggy and harness from Jesse Griffin, of Jacksonville, a few days before. Jim Brown, the negro thief, implicates several white men in his rascality.

Thomas Wade, colored, was arrested here by Deputy F. S. Cull today, on a telegram from Newberry, on a charge of murdering his wife. He was taken to Newberry this evening for a preliminary trial.

LATER.—Thomas Wade, the negro who was arrested at Archer recently, charged with whipping his wife with fatal results was released by Justice Fortson, of Newberry, there not being evidence sufficient to hold him. Wade admitted having whipped the woman but denies that it was severely, and investigation did not show that the whipping injured the deceased.

Estimates Are Absurd.

L. L. Hill, of Gainesville, the veteran orange buyer, has been in the city this week on his rounds of the fruit counties. Mr. Hill states to the Times that the 3-400,000 box crop estimates of the New York market journals are absurd. He has covered the territory thoroughly and believes 2,250,000 a liberal estimate, and 2,500,000 an extreme outside figure. Mr. Hill finds this year as usual, the best orange conditions on Pinellas Peninsula. Manatee and interior counties have about the same crop as last year, while the Peninsula from St. Petersburg to Largo is considerably above last year. North of Largo the crop is shorter, having been injured by dry weather. Whether this section has had the more rain, or can stand more punishment, Mr. Hill is not prepared to say.—St. Petersburg Times.

DEATH OF MISS DUKE.

Died Yesterday Morning After Lingering Illness—Funeral Today.

The many friends of Miss Maude Duke, in this city and elsewhere, will be pained to learn of the death of this bright and accomplished young lady, which occurred at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Duke, in this city yesterday morning, after a lingering illness.

The deceased was a beautiful and accomplished young lady, and had been sorely afflicted with heart disease for several months, until death relieved her yesterday morning.

The funeral will be held from the Duke residence this afternoon at 3 o'clock, after which the interment will take place in Evergreen cemetery.

Rev. F. H. Craighill, of the Episcopal church and Rev. S. B. Rogers of the Baptist church will officiate as ministers, and Undertaker T. F. Thomas as funeral director.

Fletcher Burnett, Truhart Bodford, Drayton Avery, Sandy Graham, Harry Pierce and James Merchant are requested to act as pall bearers.

The bereaved ones have the sympathy of the people of Gainesville.

PASTOR ROGERS A WORKER.

His Duties Are Many and Yet There Are Calls.

Rev. S. B. Rogers, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Gainesville, and President of the Florida Baptist State Convention, is a much worked man. Besides his many duties as pastor of the First Baptist Church, and President of the State Convention, he is receiving numerous requests to preach, and deliver temperance addresses elsewhere. Some of the calls he will hardly be able to respond to, but what he does do will be done well. He is requested to preach and speak during the present month as follows: Preach at St. Augustine, DeLand and High Springs, and lead fights for prohibition in Leon, Gadsden and Hamilton counties. He will fill the Baptist pulpit in High Springs next Sunday night. He is urged to give ten days if possible to the prohibition fight in Hamilton county. He is a power in the pulpit, and in a prohibition fight, and the church in Gainesville is proud of him as a pastor and preacher.

Drugged and Robbed.

Tampa Tribune, August 9: Neal Dillard, a popular tip boss on the public road, arrived at the Seaboard Air Line depot in Ybor City this morning on an early train and telephoned to Walker's stable for a team saying that he was too weak to walk. He told a very peculiar story. He says that a man paid him $60 last night in the streets of Tampa in the presence of several parties, that later two men proposed to walk a piece with him and induced him to drink from a flask, that, after drinking, he does not remember anything more until he found himself nearly two miles from Tampa this morning with his money gone and the effects of the drug administered to him in the whiskey so strong upon him that he could hardly drag himself along.

Held for Murder.

Times-Union Bureau, Tampa, Aug. 9.—The preliminary hearing in the case of the colored minister, R. H. Houston, and his wife, charged with the murder of the old negro, Robert Story, of Alafia, was resumed before Judge Robles yesterday, and upon the evidence of the physicians who made the autopsy, Houston was held to await the action of the grand jury. His wife was discharged, there not being sufficient evidence to connect her with the crime.

Was Overdrawn.

Tampa Tribune, Aug. 10: Editor A. P. Jordan, of the Punta Gorda Herald, wired the Tribune last night that the reports of the burning of Murderer Cooper in effigy at that place were very much overdrawn.

Col. Jordan says, in his telegram, that, while the people there are thoroughly incensed at the Governor, they are behaving quietly and decently.

Stung Alexander.

Mr. James Alexander, DeLand's well known attorney, was unfortunate enough to be stung by a wasp on the ball of the eye yesterday afternoon. The pain was most excruciating, and Mr. Alexander had to call upon Dr. B. R. Wilson for relief. Mr. Alexander says his eye is much better this morning.—Titusville Advocate.

Connected by 'Phone.

The East Florida Telephone Company has extended its line so that Arredondo and Kanapaha are now connected with Gainesville by 'phone. The line is in good working order and if any of our people want to talk to their friends at Arredondo and Kanapaha, the opportunity is theirs.

Died Suddenly.

M. L. Reed, a prominent colored school teacher at Archer died suddenly one evening last week. He had just concluded a speech at a meeting in the colored hall there, when he sank into unconsciousness and expired within three hours.

ARRESTED FOR FOUL MURDER

Committed to Prison by Justice Fortson of Newberry.

SHOT MAN WHILE HE SLEPT

Others Were Arrested But Only J. D. Jones Was Held For Crime.

Constable Arch Averitt arrived in the city yesterday with J. D. Jones, who was committed by Justice Fortson on a charge of shooting from ambush and foully murdering while he slept, a negro named Brady Robinson, at a mine near Newberry.

Another man and woman were arrested in connection with the case but both were released for want of evidence to hold them, but Jones must await the action of the grand jury.

FUNERAL OF LEE JOHNSON.

Body Laid to Rest in Evergreen Cemetery This Morning.

The remains of Lee Johnson, a Gainesville boy who fell from a balloon at Muncie, Ind., a few days ago and was instantly killed, arrived in the city yesterday, was taken in charge by Undertaker T. F. Thomas, and carried to the home of his sister, Mrs. O. B. Bailey, in North Gainesville.

The funeral services were conducted at the Bailey residence this morning at 9 o'clock—Rev. W. J. Carpenter, of the Methodist church officiating—and the interment was in Evergreen cemetery.

The pall bearers were Ira Baird, Aaron DeCosta, Tom Means, Walter Cato, Walter McMillan and Bert Wertheim.

The death of this young man was sad indeed. As stated in this paper Tuesday, he was in the employ of the Riddell Carnival Company (which was here last winter) and his tragic death occurred far from home and among strangers. The bereaved ones have our sincere sympathies.

WILL HUGHES OVERTAKEN.

Shrewd Blind Tiger Coon Tread by Fennell.

Will Hughes, the negro hackman who has been running a blind tiger in his house, and possibly in his back for months, was finally tread by Sheriff Fennell Wednesday night. The negro denies his guilt, of course, but before making the arrest the sheriff secured ample evidence to convict, and when the arrest was made he found in Hughes' house thirteen bottles of whiskey hidden in a secret chest or box in the wall, and covered by a large picture.

Hughes was placed in jail Wednesday night, and yesterday morning he waived examination before Judge Coleman and gave bond to await the action of the grand jury. Hughes is said to be about the hardest blind tiger case in these parts and we hope he will get justice, be that whatever it may.

Killed an Old Lady.

An old white lady named Mrs. Roberts was brutally murdered at Chuluota, near Orlando, Tuesday morning by a young colored boy of fifteen years, who was employed on the place. After the boy had shot the old lady with her son's gun he tried to escape but was captured and put in jail. It is believed the boy's object in killing the lady was only to secure the gun for himself, as he attempted to carry it with him, and he attempted no other crime than the killing.

Attention K. of P.

There will be a regular communication of Mt. Vernon Lodge No. 20 K. of P. at their Castle Hall Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

A full attendance desired and visitors cordially welcomed. J. A. Phifer, W. R. McKinstry, C. C. K. of R. and S.

A Valuable Book.

Oliver Wendell Holmes once entered the private office of Mr. James T. Fields, the publisher, on an errand. He had a book done up in paper under his arm. As he was going out he suddenly turned and said:

"I have here a most wonderful book. It is worth in money value any other book in Boston. In fact, it is worth a whole library. If it could be properly edited and illustrated, as I would do it, it would be worth the whole public library put together."

Nodding authoritatively, he shut the door, leaving those in the office looking at one another, too bewildered for conjecture. Presently the door opened again quietly, and Dr. Holmes put in his head, his face bubbling over with amusement, and said:

"Oh, I forgot to tell you what book this is. It is 'Nat Thayer's checkbook.' Then he shut the door. Mr. Thayer was understood at that time to be the richest man in Boston.

Are You Left Eyed or Right Eyed? There are but few ambidexters either in the matter of hands, feet or eyes. It may sound rather queer, but it is a fact nevertheless, that ninety-five out of every hundred human beings are right handed, left legged and left eyed.

Felix Hement remarked that it is an established fact that we all use one eye more than we do the other, which establishes as clear a case of "left and right eyedness" as though the same terms were used to denote a preference in the use of hands and feet.

If you want to decide as to whether your friends or relatives are right or left eyed give them a small telescope or spyglass to look through or have them take aim with a gun. We all take great interest in ascertaining the color, size, shape and visual powers of our children's eyes, but how many of us stop to consider whether they are right or left eyed?

How Naval Officers Are Betrayed.

"You see that man pacing up and down while he waits for the car?" said the nautical looking man to a group of bystanders. "Well, I'll bet anything he's a naval officer."

"How do you know?" asked one of his audience.

"By his well kept hands I know he's not a merchant seaman. They work too hard. But, just the same, he's a seafaring man. Whenever you see a man pacing like that make up your mind he has paced the poop or quarter deck on many a night watch."

"I've paced a watch of four hours in a space that allowed only three steps and a shove each way. You have to do it to keep awake. I can tell that quarter deck pace in others because I've got it myself."

The Yankers of Portugal. "Observe them, son," said a hotel keeper in Lisbon to one of his English guests. "They are the Yankers of Portugal."

He indicated a group of Brazilians, consisting of a prosperous sugar planter, his wife, who literally blazed with diamonds, and two pretty daughters.

"They regard Portugal as their 'old country,' for they broke away from us the Americans broke away from us. They make immense fortunes in Brazil and come here to spend them, just as the American millionaires go to England."

How a Chinaman Buys Eggs. Many Chinamen frequent Philippine markets and are good patrons, as many have restaurants and need large supplies. A Chinaman usually buys a number of eggs and always carries with him to market a small tin pail full of water to test their usefulness. If the egg falls to the bottom of the pail it is good; if it rises to the top it is bad and is refused, only to be carefully wiped off by the vendor and put back in stock to catch a customer without the pail.

Identity of Ideas. Yabeley—I have always had an idea that after a couple had been married for some time even their thoughts became to a great degree identical. Am I right, Peck?

Mr. N. Peck—You are. About this time my wife is thinking over what she'll say to me for coming home so late, and so am I.

It is a store for men who pay as they go—who want all they can get for their money and will take the time to be correctly fitted. L. C. Smith.

W. C. Summers, James Day, W. R. Dow, John O'Donn and E. C. Dickie were among the High Springs Knights who attended the K. of P. meeting and banquet here Tuesday night. Mrs. Dow accompanied her husband and spent the day Wednesday in the city.

The Peculiar Ganges Water.

There is a scientific basis for the universal faith—usually called superstition—among Hindus in the cleansing qualities of the Ganges as well as in its peculiar sanctity. Careful experiments have shown that the river possesses extraordinary and inexplicable antiseptic properties. A government analyst took water from the main sewer of Benares which contained millions of cholera germs. When emptied into a receptacle of Ganges water in six hours they were all dead. He took undeniably pure water and threw a few of these cholera germs in. They propagated and swarmed. These tests were tried repeatedly.

"Live Bait" For Alligators.

The negroes of Jamaica, in the British West Indies, use "live bait" to catch alligators. They tie a puppy to a tree near the alligator's haunt and await developments with a gun. The puppy's yelp is exactly like the bark of the baby alligator. Naturally Mrs. Alligator comes out of her mudhole in the lagoon, thinking somebody is troubling her offspring. Then the negro gets to work with his gun, and Mrs. Alligator falls a victim to her maternal affection.

A Servian Idiom.

"Greenlee says that when he was abroad he courted a Servian girl." "Custom any different from ours?" "I guess not. Greenlee says when he called on her they usually sat vis-a-vis." "I don't believe a word that Greenlee says." "Why not?" "There's no such expression as vis-a-vis in the Servian language. It's vitch-a-vitch"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

What He Took Her For.

"What! Marry you?" snorted the fiery tempered maiden. "Huh! What do you take me for?" "For better or worse," he replied promptly. So they were married and lived unhappily ever after, for, alas, she was worse than he took her for.

A Distinction.

"I dislike so much to be called a 'poetess,'" said a young woman who sometimes wrote verses for publication. "Perhaps," suggested her matter of fact brother, "if you will write a little better quality of poetry people will call you a poet."

For Company Use.

Visitor (during temporary absence of hostess)—What beautiful teeth your mamma has, Tommy. Tommy—Yes; she never wears that set 'cept when she has callers.—Baltimore American.

Much in Little.

Crusty Old Gentleman—Your singing, Miss Taylor, is like a lot of roses—Oh, you are too flattering. Old Gentleman (continuing)—A little of it goes a very long way.

Currency Preferred.

"So far as I am concerned," observed Spendahl, "I don't care whether we have an elastic currency or not; but, by George, I'd like to have it a little more adhesive!"—Chicago Tribune.

Fresh Air and Sound Health.

There are many persons who seem afraid of the fresh air. A little rain, a little wind, a little fog, a little chill in the air will keep them within doors. Going out, they bundle up in clothes so thickly that one would think they were from some arctic climate. The healthy people, however, are not as health cranks, not the people who run to the doctor every time they feel an ache. They are the people who walk a great deal in the fresh air, who live in the open as much as they can and who take a vacation in the country every year.—San Francisco Bulletin.

A Singular Forest.

The most singular forest growth in the world is encountered in the Falkland Islands, a dismal region constantly swept by a strong polar wind. What appears to be weather worn and moss covered boulders are scattered about, and when one of these curious objects is seized in an attempt to overturn it strong roots are found to hold it down, these "boulders" being, in fact, native trees which the wind has forced to be a twisted mass of fibers almost impossible to cut up into fuel.

A Barnum Story.

A story is told of the meeting of Matthew Arnold with Mr. P. T. Barnum, the great showman, in America. Mr. Arnold when introduced said how proud he felt at making the acquaintance of a man with a worldwide reputation. "Ah, Mr. Arnold," said Barnum, "we are both public men, but the difference between you and me is that you are a notability, while I am only a notoriety."

Such Cases Are Serious Sometimes.

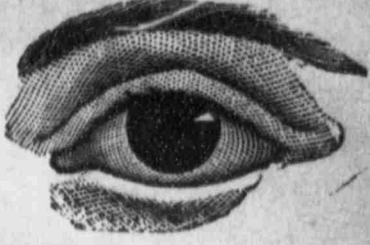

Late one evening a doctor received a note from a couple of fellow practitioners saying:

"Frax step across to the club. We are one short for a game of poker." "Emly, dear," he then said to his wife, "I am called away again. It appears to be a very serious case, for there are two doctors already in attendance."

Advantages of Black.

Little Bobby (whose mamma is very particular and is always telling him to wash his face and hands)—Mummy, dear, I do wish I was a little black boy. Mamma—My dear Bobby, you generally are.

Little Bobby—Oh, I mean really black. Then you wouldn't see when I was dirty.—Punch.

HAIR GROWER.

Brooklyn, N. Y., April 21, '99.

Dr. S. B. Giddings,
Dear Sir:—Will you kindly inform me by return mail if you can send your 50c bottle of Hair Grower the Unparalleled (Trade Mark) and if so I will send you a postal note for the same. Please inform me the amount of postage if it can be mailed.

When in Florida the winter of 1897 and '98 I used five bottles of the twenty-five cent size and produced a nice growth of hair where it had been entirely bald for fifteen years, and now I would like to try it once more if I can get it.

Yours truly,
J. W. HAYNES.
